

Night Operations For Infantry C T Dawkins	<h1>Night Operations For Infantry</h1> Compiled For The Use Of Company Officers (1916) Charles Tyrwhitt Dawkins Such [city] men, when first taken out in the dark, are helpless; they start at every shadow, stumble even on level ground, make a terrible amount of noise, and are generally in such a state of nervous excitement that they are hardly responsible for their actions. Yet these same men, by a short course of careful, individual instruction, can be trained to work together with confidence on the darkest night, and when once they have gained confidence their further instruction is comparatively easy. Total running time: 1:05:33 Four Files Read by David Wales. This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org. Cover picture by William Orpen (1878-1931), The Thinker, 1918. Copyright expired in U.S., Canada, EU. and all countries with author's life +70 yrs laws. Cover design by David Wales. This design is in the public domain.	Night Operations For Infantry C T Dawkins
---	--	---